

JD EDWARDS ONEWORLD CUSTOMER LIVE IN UNDER 60 DAYS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Faced with the challenge of managing and controlling its rapidly growing distribution operations, CP&S needed an enterprise solution provider that could integrate and deliver a world-class client/server solution system in days, not months or years. With significant growth on the horizon, rapid results were critical for CP&S in achieving controlled and profitable growth.

CORAL GABLES (April 9, 2001)— Premier's OneWorld Express Business Services positioned CP&S for rapid growth in just 60 days. The JD Edwards solution was the software of choice because of OneWorld's flexibility to respond to change, superior integration with Microsoft solutions and strong functionality. With OneWorld Express tools, methodology and consulting support, Premier was able to eliminate the technical challenges and rapidly integrate and implement the solution in just 60 days.

The flexibility of OneWorld provides CP&S with product line profitability, cost management and budgeting and other vital requirements for this high growth company. Since implementing its OneWorld Financial, CP&S has begun the rapid implementation of the Distribution/ Logistics solution with plans to expand into business to business internet links with its supplier and customer in the near term.

"We evaluated ERP solutions from all the major client/server vendors and found the JD Edwards' solution provided the flexibility to address our current and long-term needs. With Premier's Express offering, we implemented OneWorld Financials including data conversion and integration with our legacy systems in the record time, 60 calendar days, for a fixed fee and with very high quality results," noted Jose I. Bernal, COO at CP&S.
